

WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
JANUARY 1 THROUGH MARCH 31, 2013

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Station's judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station also produced and broadcast public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA- A weekly half-hour public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS SPRING HELPING FEELS GOOD SPECIAL - A half-hour quarterly special consisting of a series of reports showing how CBS4's Neighbors 4 Neighbors provided support and assistance to South Florida residents in need during the first quarter of 2013. Broadcast dates and times as indicated on the report.

FAMILY: Topics in this category include: domestic violence; campaign for adoption of foster children; child abuse prevention; home makeover for grandmother; help for boy victim of drive-by shooting and his family; bereavement program for children; parental education to prevent child abuse; playground for family homeless shelter; and help for mother victim of domestic violence.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 2/10, 10 AM. Lisa Schejola, One Billion Rising board member and Clarita Amador, domestic violence victim discussed an annual event with the goal of creating global awareness about the need of ending the violence against women and girls. 2/24, 10 AM. Emily Cardenas, The Children's Trust discussed the Miami Heart Gallery, a gallery of photographs of local foster children designed to help get them a forever family. 3/17, 10 AM. Jonathan Spikes, Author & Mentor discussed his history as a victim of poverty and child abuse, his commitment to serve as a mentor and positive role model for inner city children at risk and his inspirational book "I Know What I Am and I Am Not What You Call Me." NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: GRANDMA'S HOME MAKEOVER: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report focused on a grandmother raising four grandchildren that received a home makeover through the efforts of Neighbors 4 Neighbors and Rebuilding Together Broward County. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: SPECIAL DELIVERY: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report focused on the case of a 15 year old boy who was the victim of a drive-by shooting in Miami that left him paralyzed from the waist down and showed how through the efforts of Neighbors 4 Neighbors and other non-profit partners and friends, the boy received a delivery of items to help him and his family adjust to his new condition. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: HOPE FLOATS: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report focused on a bereavement program, Tomorrow's Rainbow that helps children cope with loss through play and therapy. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: BROWARD AWARE: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report focused on the Broward Aware program offered by the Children's Services Council Parenting Academy aimed at preventing child abuse through parental education. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: PROJECT PLAYGROUND: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report showed how a local affordable housing organization that provides temporary housing to homeless families was helped by local businesses, agencies and volunteers in their effort to build a new playground for the children living at the facility. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: DOCTORS HELP: 3/31, 10:30 AM. The report showed how the nationally syndicated show The Doctors came to the aid of a local mom of six who is a domestic violence survivor with the help of Neighbors 4 Neighbors.

ECONOMY/POVERTY: Topics in this category include: personal financial advice; global entrepreneurial program; community revitalization through the arts; campaign against highway tolls; free marketing services for non-profit; non-profits awards for innovation; new web for volunteering services.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/6, 10 AM. Javier Quinones, financial planner discussed the importance of having a financial plan and setting financial goals. 1/27, 10 AM. Matt Haggman, Miami program director for the Knight Foundation discussed Endeavor, a global nonprofit that selects, mentors, and supports entrepreneurs in metropolitan areas in 16 countries that will be coming to South Florida, the first U.S. location. He explained that through the local support of the James L. Knight Foundation, South Florida's innovators will soon be able to connect to a global network of mentors and advisors who can help grow their ventures. 2/10, 10 AM. Nick Korniloff, Director, Art Wynwood Fair and Ariana Testamarck Orellana, Wynwood Ways discussed a project to make the economically depressed Wynwood community a more pedestrian-friendly cultural destination with permanent artistic crosswalks. 3/24, 10 AM. Carlos Garcia, rollbacktolls.com discussed his opposition to the Miami-Dade Expressway Authority (MDX) toll increases and how his campaign to roll back tolls is gaining public support.

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL:

PHILADTHROPY: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report focused on the "Philadthropy" project of the University of Miami's School of Communications that provides free marketing, public relations and advertising services from communications students to local non-profits organizations.

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: NON-PROFIT

ACADEMY AWARDS: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report focused on a local awards program that honors non-profit organizations for outstanding community service and this year awarded

Neighbors 4 Neighbors the non-profit of the year for innovation award for the creation of the volunteer match website, HelpingFeelsGood.org. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING

FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: WEB FOR HELPING: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report focused on a new web-based service provided by Neighbors 4 Neighbors, HelpingFeelsGood.Org, that serves as a resource to both non-profits looking for new ways to help their clients in need and volunteers looking for meaningful service experiences.

PUBLIC SAFETY/ENVIRONMENT: Topics in this category include: gun control; effort to control python population; crackdown on hit and run accidents; new transportation services; animal cruelty prevention; and human trafficking.

1/27, 10 AM. Marcos Sendon, head of South Florida Conservative- SFLAConservative.com and Reverend Jerome Starling, Rickia Isaac Foundation debated guns, gun control, and gun legislation. 1/27, 10 AM. “Alligator Ron” Bergeron, Everglades Conservationist, discussed the effort to control the population explosion of pythons across South Florida and how the program is producing results. 2/17, 10 AM. Habsi Kaba, Crisis Team Program Coordinator and Liaison for Miami-Dade County and Lt. Emmanuel Guerrier, Miami-Dade Police discussed the program to train police officers to deal with mentally ill people. 2/24, 10 AM. Betsy Jones, mother of the University of Miami student killed in hit and run crash and Sally Matson, Mothers Against Drunk Driving discussed a Florida Highway Patrol campaign to crack down on the escalating number of hit and run accidents in South Florida and statewide. 2/24, 10 AM. Patricia Zeiler, Sun Trolley discussed the new public transportation modality that provides easy access to Broward County hospitals and social services that otherwise might not be to served. 3/3, 10 AM. Richard Couto, Activist & Founder Animal Rescue Mission discussed an investigation into the growing problem of animal cruelty in South Florida for sport or religious rituals. 3/31, 10 AM. Marti MacGibbon, comedian and a survivor of human trafficking, discussed her experiences when she was captured as a sex slave in Japan and new book “Never Give in to Fear: Laughing All the Way Up From Rock Bottom” which describes how she recovered from and triumphed over the nightmare experiences in her life.

GOVERNMENT/ INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS: Topics in this category include: local presidential inauguration event; immigration reform; update on Haiti earthquake recovery; and new Cuba travel policy.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/13, 10 AM. Suzette Espinosa Fuentes, Arsht Center Assistant Vice President Public Relations discussed an event at the Arsht Center to commemorate the presidential inauguration. 2/3, 10 AM. Representative Joe Garcia and Professor David Abraham, UM Law School discussed the immigration reform bi-partisan proposal announced this week and its impact in South Florida. 1/13, 10 AM. Reverend Reginald Jean Mary, Notre Dame D’Haiti, discussed the current situation in Haiti in the third anniversary of the destruction earthquake. 1/20, 10 AM. Andy Gomez, University of Miami Professor & Senior Fellow Institute for Cuban & Cuban-American Studies, and Vivian Mannerud, ABC Charters discussed the recent travel policy changes announced by the Cuban government.

EDUCATION/CULTURE: Topics in this category include: National Mentoring Month; bullying prevention; students with mental illness; observing Black History Month; international film festival; International Women's Day; celebration of peace; county fair; school campaign against hate; school crossing safety; culinary school; and youth music program.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/6, 10 AM. Nancy Jones, The Miami Foundation, discussed the benefits of volunteering and giving back to the community. 1/13, 10 AM. Dan Gelber, Big Brother Big Sister mentor and Travis Thomas, mentee discussed National Mentoring Month, the benefits of mentoring at-risk youth, and how people can get involved. 1/13, 10 AM. Arnetha Thomas, Solid Rock Enterprise, Inc. discussed a program that her organization developed for use at a local middle school that uses conflict resolution and reconciliation to prevent and deal with bullying. 2/3, 10 AM. Alberto Carvalho, Miami-Dade Schools Superintendent and Steve Leifman, Miami-Dade County Judge and Special Advisor on Criminal Justice and Mental Health for the Supreme Court of Florida discussed a program, set to begin in March, for teachers in Miami-Dade schools to better detect mental illness in students. 2/10, 10 AM. Timothy Barber, Executive Director of the Black Archives and Professor Renee Kilpatrick, discussed the importance of observing Black History month during February. 2/17, 10 AM. Jaie LaPlante, Executive Director, Miami International Film Festival and Brad Bernstein, Director-Producer-Writer discussed plans for the 30th annual Miami International Film Festival. 3/3, 10 AM. Ana Guevara, World Trade Center Miami, Conchita Muñoz Prieto, International Women's Day honoree discussed the annual International Women's Day event that honors women who have made an impact in the community. 3/17, 10 AM. Willie Stewart, Musician and Veronica McHugh, Brahma Kumaris discussed the "Peace in the Park" community event featuring music and meditation. 3/17, 10 AM. Robert Hohenstein, CEO, Miami-Dade County Fair and Expo discussed this annual event that brings rides, games and entertainment while raising funds for scholarships and public education. 3/24, 10 AM. Yael Hirschfield, Anti-Defamation League (ADL) Interim Director Florida; Wendell Dunn, Miami Palmetto Senior; and Mackenzie Gusman, Miami Palmetto Junior discussed the ADL's massive public awareness campaign called "Imagine a World Without Hate" to coincide with its 100th anniversary. They mentioned that Miami Palmetto Senior High School was just honored with the ADL's "No Room for Hate" designation for its commitment to stop bullying and promote diversity. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: SAFE CROSSING: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This was a follow up to a previous report about a group of students who were victims of neighborhood bullies that harassed them while crossing an overpass to and from school. The report showed that since the first report was broadcast the students have been able to voice their concerns and work with community leaders to put in place security measures and thus solve the bullying problem. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: COOKING LESSONS: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report showed how the students of the Miami-Dade Culinary Institute integrate green gardening practices and share their fine cuisine with community organizations. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: MUSICAL YOUTH: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report focused on the South Florida Youth Symphony that for nearly 50 years has given students from all backgrounds an opportunity to experience the arts.

HEALTH: Topics in this category include: value of nutrition and exercise; flu season; guide dogs for visually impaired; affordable healthcare; rape prevention and treatment services; autism awareness; and help for people with MS;

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/6, 10 AM. Dr. Wendy Gallego, Shin Wellness nutritionist discussed the physical and psychological benefits of maintaining a healthy diet and getting plenty of exercise. 1/27, 10 AM. Dr. Alvaro Mejia-Echeverry, Miami-Dade County Health Department, discussed the flu season and what is being offered locally for children and adults to protect them and help keep them healthy. 2/3, 10 AM. Lesa Kretschmer, Florida Reading & Vision Technology, Inc. discussed her program that helps visually impaired people locally, statewide and across the country by providing them with especially trained guide dogs. 2/17, 10 AM. Carolyn Taylor-Pates and Brodes Hartley, Jr., Community Health Inc. President & CEO discussed the history of this healthcare center founded by the late Doris Ison of Florida City in 1971 who was dissatisfied with healthcare services for African-Americans. 3/24, 10 AM. Cindy Magnole, RN, Jackson Memorial Hospital (JMH) Injury Prevention Coordinator and Isabelle St-Cyr, JMH Rape Treatment Center Program Coordinator discussed the Sexual Assault Awareness Month and an upcoming seminar at the Roxy Bolton Rape Treatment Center at JMH that will focus on awareness and prevention of this problem that is affecting our youth between the ages of 12 to 18 in growing numbers. 3/31, 10 AM. Lula Folgosa, Executive Director, South Florida Autism Speaks and Daniela Foley, mother of child with autism discussed the organization's plans during Autism Awareness month that include local participation in the global "Light It Up Blue" event, the Miami Walk for Autism and efforts to get signatures a petition asking President Obama and Congress to develop a national plan that addresses autism. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: AFFORDABLE HEALTHCARE: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report focused on the Community Health of South Florida an organization that has been providing affordable health care in South Miami-Dade for nearly 40 years. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS HELPING FEELS GOOD SPRING SPECIAL: MS SERVICE DAY: 3/31, 10:30 AM. This report focused on the Muscular Sclerosis Society's annual day of service that provides special help to those living with MS and their families. The reported demonstrated one of the projects where a team of volunteers helped remodel the home of one of their clients.